Antelope Valley Partners for Health

Community Collaborative Promoting Health and Wellness

44226 10th Street West

Lancaster CA, 93534

661-942-4719

This guide provides a list of youth services and programs available in the community of the Antelope Valley. If you have any questions, please contact Kimberly Pichinte at (661) 942-4719 xt.151 or at kpichinte@avph.org

This directory is meant as a general inventory of programs for children and youth; it may be utilized by families, service providers, friends, and youth themselves. The services in this directory are provided in the community and are accessible to young people meeting program criteria. Services listed do not require a referral from a physician or mental health provider, nor will the services listed require referral from child welfare or juvenile justice systems or from the court system.

✚ Antelope Valley Partners for Health (AVPH) (Lancaster, CA (661) 942-4719) The Youth Services Department helps youth in the community grow by providing education, resources and creating a safe place for each youth to succeed in the Antelope Valley. As a department we will strive to meet each youth right where they are in their lives, to promote and teach a lifestyle that encourages physical and mental health.
